The Miracle of Adoption

Adoption is one of the greatest images of rebirth. It is not simply a legal process or a social act, as it reaches beyond the plight of abandoned babies and vulnerable children and reaches into the depths of every human soul. It is the timeless call, "Let the little children come to me." An adoption where the only court decree is, "Welcome home." At its heart lies the ultimate act of love—the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ on the cross. Through his finished work, we are offered the chance to be reconciled with our Heavenly Father, to be adopted into his eternal family, and to become heirs to His Kingdom; we're given a new identity, deeply loved, fully accepted, and eternally cherished. We are Miracle Children. We are Reborn.

I am so blessed to introduce to you our 40 Days of Prayer: Immeasurably More for the Fatherless. We're trusting God to do what only He can do for orphans, while at the same time examining our own hearts for what we could be doing and asking Him to work through us to make a difference. We're hoping you'll join us in daily approaching His Throne of Grace for them.

Heavenly Father, our hearts are burdened for the fatherless children of this world. We recognize the immense need for Your intervention in the lives of Romanian orphans and orphaned children globally, as they are facing abandonment, mistreatment, neglect, and danger. We pray for Your divine protection over orphans and trust Your promise to care for them. Holy Spirit, intercede for these children in ways that words cannot express. Speak to their hearts, reminding them of their infinite worth in You and of Your unfailing love for them. Bring restoration and healing to their brokenness. We surrender these children into Your loving hands, and we trust Your Sovereignty, believing that You can do immeasurably more than we could ever ask or imagine.
