When Jesus welcomed and embraced children who were deemed unworthy of his attention, he emphasized the importance of childlike faith, declaring that "the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." Those who approach God with the simplicity, trust, and humility of a child are the ones who truly understand the purpose and will of God. Orphans' stories include loss, longing, and the search for belonging. But when we as the Church embrace them and respond to their needs, we reflect the commitment to live out the love and compassion of Christ in a tangible way. We are able to give children belonging in forever families. As there are no orphans in His kingdom, may we seek His will on earth as it is in heaven.

Heavenly Father, we recognize the immense privilege and responsibility of caring for the fatherless in our midst. We pray for every orphan known, unknown, loved, and waiting. We pray they would experience the reality of your kingdom here on earth through the love and care of your people. As the Church, help us to respond to the needs of orphans with hearts full of grace and generosity. Grant us wisdom, discernment, and resources as we seek to provide for their physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being. May we be instruments of your love to those who are in desperate need of redemption, healing, and restoration.

Thank You for the precious gift of Your own son, Jesus Christ, who made the inheritance of heaven possible through his death on the cross, demonstrating Your commitment to seek and save the lost. Bless those abundantly who seek the fatherless and who open their hearts and homes to children in need. Help us to live out the wholeness of family here on earth as in heaven, and to create communities where every child knows the love and security of belonging to a family.
